Mr. William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I was directed to contact your office by the local office of Congress-woman Barbara Milkuski regarding the following request.

I am researching for an article on Moe Berg, famous American athlete, scholar and U.S. spy during World War 2.

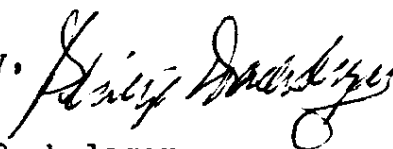

Moe Berg served as a U.S. spy during the Roosevelt administration, and was selected for this mission by General Wm. Donovan., chief of Office Strategic Services (OSS). Earlier he served under Nelson D. Rockefeller, head of Intra-American Affairs (CIA AA)

I understand that during his European missions, tracking down and uncovering Hitler's atomic weaponry in progress, he was doing undercover work for the CIA.

In order to assist me on my research, could your office furnish me with some non-classified information regarding Mr. Berg's association with your division at that time?

Thank you for your effort and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Philip Dachslager
